

A large rectangular frame containing a mathematical equation template. It consists of three empty square boxes arranged horizontally, separated by a plus sign (+) and an equals sign (=). The first box is on the left, the plus sign is in the middle, the second box is on the right, the equals sign is in the middle, and the third box is on the right.